

At the year of 2006 we officially established a non-profit organisation to provide immensely important work; spread global awareness and help defectors establish a new life in South Korea by giving them valuable education and support. Our vision is to reunify the two peninsulas that share a long history.

Corean stands for...